Georgia 4-H Base Programming

Georgia 4-H Summer Camping Senior Camp

Description of Learning Experience:

Georgia's 4-H summer camping program, administered through the county offices of University of Georgia Cooperative Extension, offers a 4-H summer camping experience unparalleled in the nation. Enthusiastic and well-trained camp counselors, Extension employees, certified volunteers and teen leaders work together to provide campers with unforgettable memories to last a lifetime.

Senior Camp is offered to high school-aged 4-H'ers and its activities are typically designed to promote a greater understanding of leadership and development of leadership skills and social interaction among students from across this state, who develop greater relationships through the residential camping experience.

Learning Outcomes:

- Cultivate an increased understanding of leadership and practice leadership skills
- Develop a greater appreciation for people from diverse backgrounds
- Develop positive relationships among students and adult leaders
- Develop self-confidence and experience self-discovery
- Promote individual responsibility as part of a successful collective effort

Georgia Performance Standards:

Pending implementation of GPS in health and physical education and character education, we offer these examples of QCC standards in these two areas relevant to the summer camp setting:

Physical Education - 5.4, Physical Fitness; and, 5.10, Self-Management

Character Education - 5.12, Respect for Others; and, 5.14, Respect for Self

Essential Elements:

Primary: Independence and Belonging; Secondary: Generosity and Mastery

Mission Mandates:

Citizenship; Healthy Lifestyles; Science, Engineering and Technology
