CLASS INFORMATION :

- On November 10th from 9:30AM-3:00PM individuals will be participating in a Yellow Ribbon / Operation Military Kids Youth Program and Curriculum Training. OMK Yellow Ribbon Youth Outreach Curriculum helps equip volunteers to effectively direct other volunteers, and guide OMK youth activities, to meet project and life skill objectives. The Yellow Ribbon Activity Guide accommodates certain age groups and to successfully navigate each stage of the deployment cycle. Once individuals complete the OMK Yellow Ribbon Volunteer Training, complete the Cooperative Extension Volunteer Application, and pass a background investigation they will become Certified OMK Yellow Ribbon Event Instruction Volunteers.

CLASS INFORMATION :

- On November 9th from 9:30 AM – 3:00 PM participants will be engaged in an OMK Ready, Set, Go Training Session. RSG is a multifaceted interactive training that tailors activities to specific audiences. The training provides practical information to assist participants in building community capacity and educating community members about the needs of military children and youth. In Georgia, RSG trainings are provided for audiences including Career Technical and Agricultural educators, school counselors, Family Assistance Center coordinators, County Extension Agents, community leaders, and any individual who is interested in learning about military life and culture in Georgia and throughout the nation.

GEORGIA OPERATION: MILIARY KIDS
NOVEMBER 9 & 10, 2010 AT
ROCK EAGLE 4-H CENTER

Over 15,638 military members from Georgia are deployed and an endless amount of families affected. Please volunteer and lend a helping hand to those service members and families in your own backyard.

Each Course is separate and optional. Free lodging is available at Rock Eagle on November 9, 2010.
